the invading of this Your Realm, For the better defraying the necessary Expences thereof, which cannot otherwise be effected, without great charge to Your Majesty, Do, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords in this Your present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, to the intent aforesaid, Give, and Grant unto You our Supreme Lette Lord & Sovereign, one Subsidy, called Tonnage; that is to say, Of every Ton of wine of the growth of France, or of any the Dominions of the French King, or Crown of France, that shall come into the Port of London, and the Members thereof, by way of Merchandise, by Your Natural born Subjects, the sum of Four pounds and ten shillings of currant English money, and so after that Rate; and by Strangers and Aliens Six pounds of like money; And of every Ton of the like wine, which shall be brought into all, and every the other Ports and Places of this Kingdom, and the Dominions thereof, by way of Merchandise, by Your Natural born Subjects, the sum of Three pounds, and by Aliens Four pounds and ten shillings. And of every But or Pipe of Muscadels, Malmaseys, Cutes, Tents, Allicants, Bastards, Sacks, Canaries, Malligoes, Maderoes, and other wines whatsoever, commonly called Sweet wines, of the growth of the Levant, Spain, Portugal, or any of them, or of any the Islands or Dominions to them, or any of them belonging, or elsewhere, that shall come, or be brought into the Port of London by Your natural born Subjects, the sum of Forty five shillings of currant English money, and so after that Rate,
And

And by Strangers and Aliens Three pounds of like money: And of every But and Pipe of the like Wine, which shall come, or be brought into all, every, or any the other Ports and Places of this Kingdome, and Dominions thereof, by Way of Merchandize by Your natural Born Subjects, the sum of Thirty Shillings, and by Strangers Forty five Shillings. And of every Albin of Rhenish Wine, or Wine of the growth of Germany, that shall be brought into this Your Realm, and the Dominions thereof, by Your natural Born Subjects, The sum of Twenty Shillings of currant English money, and by Strangers and Aliens Twenty and Five Shillings, which several Rates are the same which are expressed in a certain Book of Rates herein after mentioned and referred unto. And also one other Subsidy called Poundage, That is to say, of all manner of Goods and Merchandize of every Merchant, natural Born Subject, Denizen, and Alien, to be carried out of this Realm, or any Your Majesties Dominions to the same belonging, or to be brought into the same by Way of Merchandize, of the value of every Twenty Shillings of the same Goods and Merchandize, according to the several and particular Rates and Values of the same Goods and Merchandizes, as the same are particularly and respectibely Rated and Valued in the said Book of Rates herein after mentioned and referred unto, Twelve pence, and so after that Rate. And of every Twenty Shillings value of any the Native Commodities of this Realm, or Manufactures, wrought of any such Native Commodities, to be carried out of this Realm, by every, or any Merchant Alien, according to the Value thereof in the said Book expressed, Twelve pence over and above the Twelve pence aforesaid, Except and foreprized out of this Grant of Subsidy of Poundage, all manner of Woollen Clothes, made or wrought, or to be made or wrought within this Realm of England, commonly called Old Draperies, and all Wines before Limited to pay Subsidy of Tonnage, and all manner of Fish, English taken, and brought by English Bottoms, into this Realm, and all manner of fresh Fish, and Bestial, that shall come into this Your Realm, and all other Goods and Merchandizes, which in the said Book of Rates are mentioned to be Custome-free.

And further, We Your said Commons, by the Advice, Assent and Authority aforesaid, do give and grant unto You, Our said Leige Lord and Sovereign, for the causes aforesaid, One other Subsidy, That is to say, of and for every short Wollen Cloth to be exported by Your natural born Subjects of this Your Realm, and the Dominions thereof, called broad Cloth, not exceeding twenty eight yards in length, and threescore and four pounds in weight, the sum of thre shillings and four pence of Currant English money, and of every Cloth of greater length and weight proportionably, according to the same Rate, And of every other short Cloth of old Drapery of lesser length, & weight, accounting so many pieces to a short Cloth, as are Limited and appointed thereunto by the said Book of Rates, to be likewise exported by Your said natural born born Subjects, the like sum of three shillings four pence, and so after that Rate, And by strangers and aliens six shillings & eight pence for every short Cloth accounted as aforesaid, which several Rates are accordingly expressed in the said Book of Rates herein after mentioned and referred unto, To have, hold, take, enjoy, and perceive the subsidies aforesaid, and every of them, and every part and parcel of them unto Your Majesty, from the four and twentieth day of June inclusively, in the twelfth year of Your Majesties Reign, for and during Your Majesties life, which God long preserve.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid; That if any Wines, Goods, or other Merchandize, whereof the Subsidies aforesaid are or shall be due, shall at any time after be shipped or put into any Boat or Vessel, to the intent to be carried into the parts beyond the Seas, or else be brought from the parts beyond the Seas into any Port, Place, or Creek of this Realm, or other Your Majesties Dominions, by way of Merchandize, and unshipped to be laid on Land, the subsidy, Customs and other Duties due or to be due for the same not paid, or Lawfully tendered to the Collector thereof, or his deputy, with the consent and agreement of the Comptroller and Surveyor there, or one of them at the least, nor agreed with for the same in the Custom-house, according to the true meaning of this Act, that then, from the said four and twentieth day of June, all the same Wines, Goods and Merchandizes whatsoever shall be forfeit to Your Majesty, the moiety of the Rate thereof to Your Majesty, and the other moiety to him or them that will seize the same, or sue for the same, And that it may please Your Majesty, That all Merchants, as well denizens, as strangers, coming into this Your Realm, be well and honestly intreated and demeaned, for such things as Subsidy by this Act is granted, as they were in the time of Your Noble Progenitors and Predecessors, without oppression to them to be done, paying the Subsidies aforesaid.

And, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Goods or Merchandise as aforesaid, of any Merchant being born Denizen after the said four and twentieth day of June, hath been, or at any time hereafter during Your Majesties life, shall be taken by any Enemies or Pirates upon the Sea, or perished in any ship or ships, that shall happen to be taken or perished, during Your Majesties Life, whereof the Subsidies and other Duties aforesaid, are, or shall be due, shall be paid, or agreed for as aforesaid; and that due proof be before the Treasurer of England, Commissioners of the Treasury, or Chief Baron of the Exchequer for the time being, by the Examination of the same Merchants, if they be alive, or of their Executors or Administrators, if they be dead; or by Two credible witnesses at the least sworn, or other reasonable witness and proof sworn, then the same Merchant or Merchants, his, or their Executors or Administrators, shall or may newly ship, in the same Port where the Goods and Merchandise aforesaid were, or shall be Customed, so much other Merchandise or Goods, as the same Goods or Merchandise are, or shall be lost as aforesaid, shall amount amount unto in Custom, without paying of any thing for the same, so as the same Proof be Recorded and allowed of in the Court of Exchequer, and certified unto the Collectors of the Customs of the Port where the same wares or Merchandize are to be newly shipped without Custom, as aforesaid. And further, That every Merchant-Denizen who shall hereafter ship any Goods or Merchandize in any Carrack or Gally, shall pay to Your Majesty all manner of Customs, and all the Subsidies aforesaid, as any Alien born out of the Realm.

Provided always, That it shall and may be lawful to all and every Your Subjects, at his and their will and pleasure, to convey and transport out of this Realm, in Ships and other Vessels of any the Subjects of this Realm, all and every kinde of Herrings, and other Sea-fish, to be taken on the Sea by any the Subjects aforesaid, from or out of any Port or Harbor of this Realm, to any place out of Your Majesties Dominions, without paying any Custom, Subsidy or Poundage-moneys for the same Herrings, or other Fish so carried or transported during Your Majesties life, any thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And because no Rates can be Imposed upon Merchandize, imported or exported by Subjects or Aliens, but by common consent in Parliament, Be it further Enacted and Declared, by the Authority aforesaid, that the Rates intended by this present Act, shall be the Rates mentioned and expressed in one Book of Rates Entituled, The Rates of Merchandize, That is to say, the subsidy of Tonnage, the Subsidy of Poundage, and the Subsidie of Woollen Clothes, or old Draperies, as they are Rated and agreed on by the Commons House of Parliament, set down and expressed in this Book, to be paid according to the Tenor of the Act of Tonnage and Poundage, from the Four and twentieth day of June inclusively, in the Twelfth year of his Majesties Reign, during his Majesties Life, and Subscribed with the Hand of Sir Harbottle Grimston Baronet, Speaker of the House of Commons; which said Book of Rates Composed and agreed on by your Majesties said Commons, and also every Article, Rule and Clause therein contained, shall be and remain during your Majesties Life, as effectual to all intents and purposes, as if the same were included particularly in the Body of this present Act.

And it is further Enacted, That during the continuance of this present Grant, where the Goods Exported or Imported, amount to the value of Five pounds or more, the Customers and Collectors, and all other his Majesties Officers in the severall Ports, shall take and receive such Fees, and no other, as were taken in the Fourth year of the late King James, until such time as the said Fees shall be otherwise settled by Authority of Parliament.

Provided always, That no person or persons, who after the Four and twentieth of June, in the year One thousand six hundred and sixty, and before the Four and Twentieth of July in the same year, have paid, received, ved, or collected any Duties, or Customs, according to the Rates used in April One thousand six hundred and sixty, shall be molested, or any way Impeached, for or concerning the Payment or Receipt of the said Duties, or any other Duties by this Act Imposed.

And it is hereby further Declared, That no person who hath shipped any Goods since the said fourth and twentieth of June, and before the said fourth and twentieth of July, shall be liable to the payment of any Duties therefore, other then such as were used to be paid in the said Month of April, One thousand six hundred and sixty.

Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawfull for any person or persons, immediately from and after the passing of this Act, to transport, ship, and carry out of this Kingdome, or out of any Port thereof, by Way of Merchandize, any of these Commodities, Goods, and Merchandizes following. That is to say; Iron, Armour, Bandoleers, Bridle-Bitts, Halbert Heads and Sharps, Holsters, Muskets, Carbines, Fowling-Pieces, Pistols, Pikeheads, Sword or Rapier-Blades, Saddles, Snaffles, Stirropes, Calveskins dressed or undressed, Geddings, Oxen, Sheepskins dressed without the wool, and all sorts of Manufactures made of Leather; paying the respective Rates appointed by this Act, and no other, any Law, Statutes, Prohibitions, and Customes to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted, by the Authority aforesaid, that it shall and may be lawfull, immediately after the passing of this Act, for any person or persons to ship, carry on, and transport transport by way of Merchandize, these several sorts of Goods following, that is to say, Gunpowder when the same doth not exceed the price of five pounds the Barrel. And Wheat, Rye, Pease, Beanes, Barley, Mault and Oates, Beef, Pork, Bacon, Butter, Cheese, Candles, when the same do not exceed in price at the Ports from whence they are Laden, and at the time of their Lading these rates following: That is to say, Wheat, the Quarter, Forty shillings; Rye, Beans and Peas, the Quarter, Twenty four shillings; Barley and Mault the Quarter, Twenty shillings; Oats, the Quarter, Sixteen shillings; Beef, the barrel, Five pounds; Pork, the barrel, Six pounds ten shillings; Bacon, the pound, Six pence; Butter, the barrel, Four pounds ten shillings; Cheese, the hundred, One pound ten shillings; Candles, the dozen pound, Five shillings, paying the respective Rates appointed by this Act, and no more: Any former Law, Statute, Prohibition or Custom to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Provided always, That it shall be free and lawful for his Majesty, at any time when he shall see cause so to do, and for such time as shall be therein expressed, by Proclamation, to prohibit the Transporting of Gunpowder, or any sort of Arms or Ammunition, into any parts out of this Kingdom: Any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That over and above the Rates herein before mentioned, there shall be paid unto your Majesty of every Ton of Wine wine of the growth of France, Germany, Portugal, or Madera, brought into the Port of London, or elsewhere, the sum of Three pounds currant English money, within the space of Nine moneths after the Importing : And of every Ton of all other wines brought in as aforesaid, the sum of Four pounds of like currant money, within the space of Nine moneths after the Importing thereof. For the payment of which Duties accordingly, the Importer shall give good Security : And if any of the said wines for which the additional Duty in this Clause mentioned, is paid, or secured at the Importation, be Exported within twelve moneths after their Importation, then the aforesaid additional Duty in this Clause mentioned, shall be returned, or the Security discharged, as to so much as shall be so Exported : And if at the Importation the Importer shall pay for the same ready money, he shall be allowed after the Rate of Ten per Cent. for a year.

And be it further Enacted, That from and after the said Four and twentieth day of July, all manner of wines whatsoever to be Imported into the Port of London, or elsewhere, shall be freed and discharged, of and from the Imposition of Excise.

Provided, and it is hereby Declared and Enacted, That the Prizage of wines, or Pile-wines, ought not to pay Tonnage or Custom, and shall not be charged with the payment of any Custom, Subsidy, or sum of money Imposed upon wines by this Act, or any thing therein contained.
